

Eskişehir Osmangazi University: A Leading Institution

Founded in 1993, Eskişehir Osmangazi University is a prominent state university in central Anatolia. It offers diverse programmes and international opportunities for students and staff.

Student Body and Academic Structure

1

Student Population

Over 35,000 students enrolled across various academic levels.

2

Academic Divisions

13 Faculties and 4 Graduate Schools offer comprehensive education.

3

Degree Levels

Programmes range from associate to doctoral degrees.

International Partnerships

Global Reach

EU Partnerships

Extensive network of Erasmus agreements with European universities.

Non-EU Collaborations

Agreements with 17 non-EU countries under KA171 programme.

Mobility Opportunities

KA171 project facilitates student and staff exchanges with partner universities.

Location: Eskişehir

Population

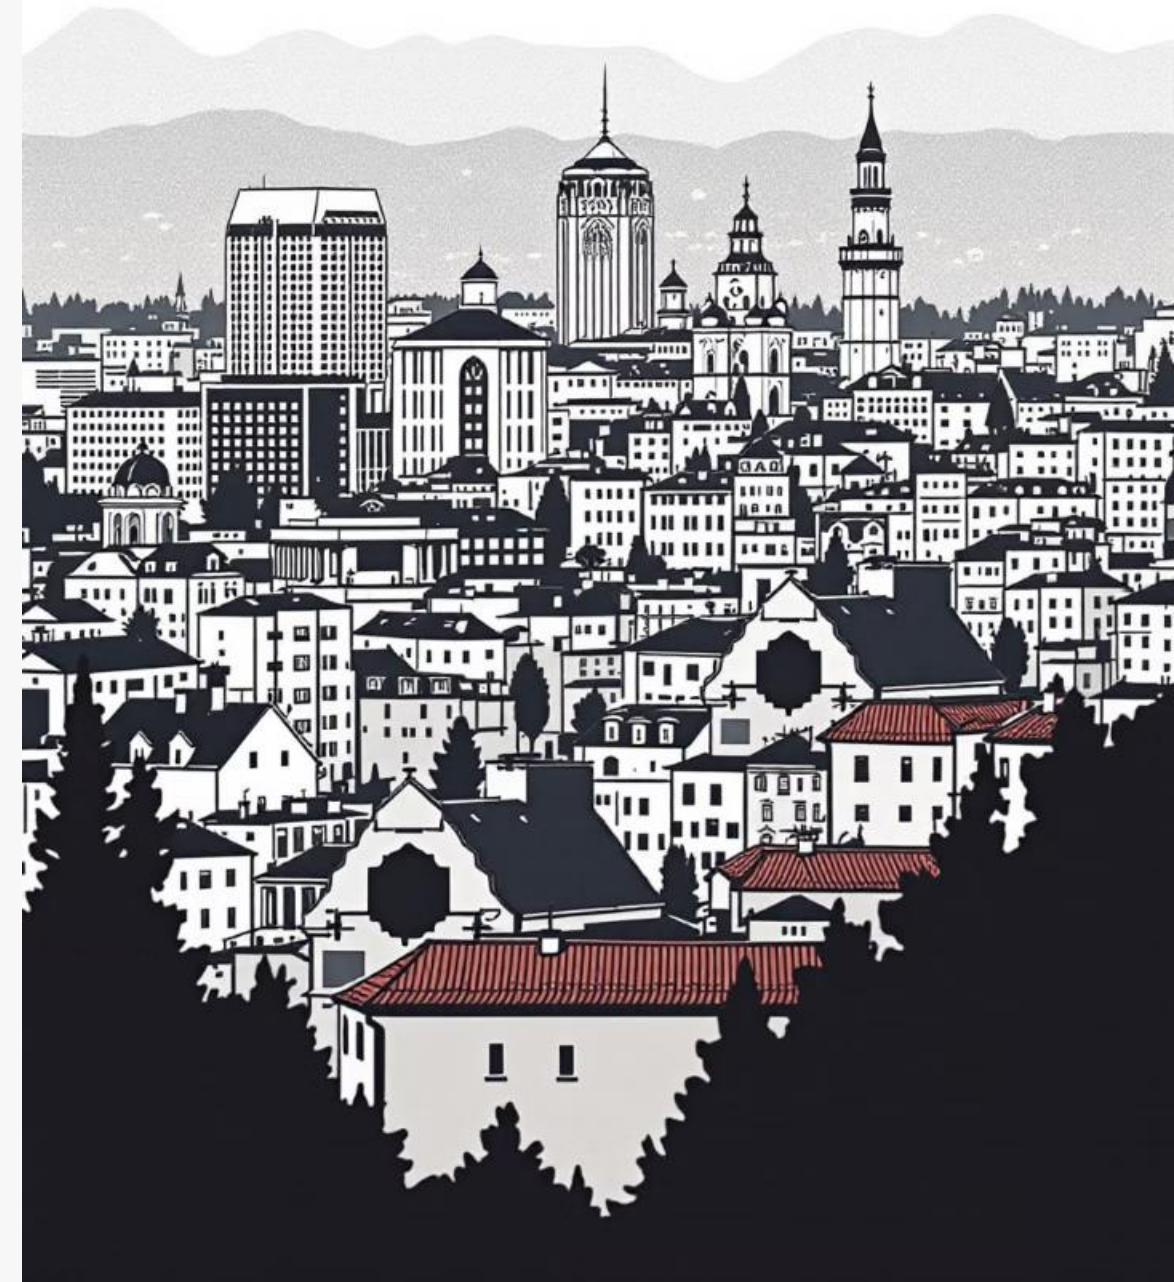

Over 900,000 residents in this major Turkish city.

Connectivity

3 hours from Istanbul and 1.5 hours from Ankara by rail.

Industrial Hub

Home to various industries, including aircraft and railway factories.

Transportation Hub

Railway Crossroads

Eskişehir is at the intersection of major railway lines.

Industrial Centre

The city hosts a variety of industrial facilities.

Aerospace Industry

Aircraft factories contribute to the city's economic landscape.

Economic Significance

1

Industrial Diversity

Various sectors contribute to the city's economic strength.

2

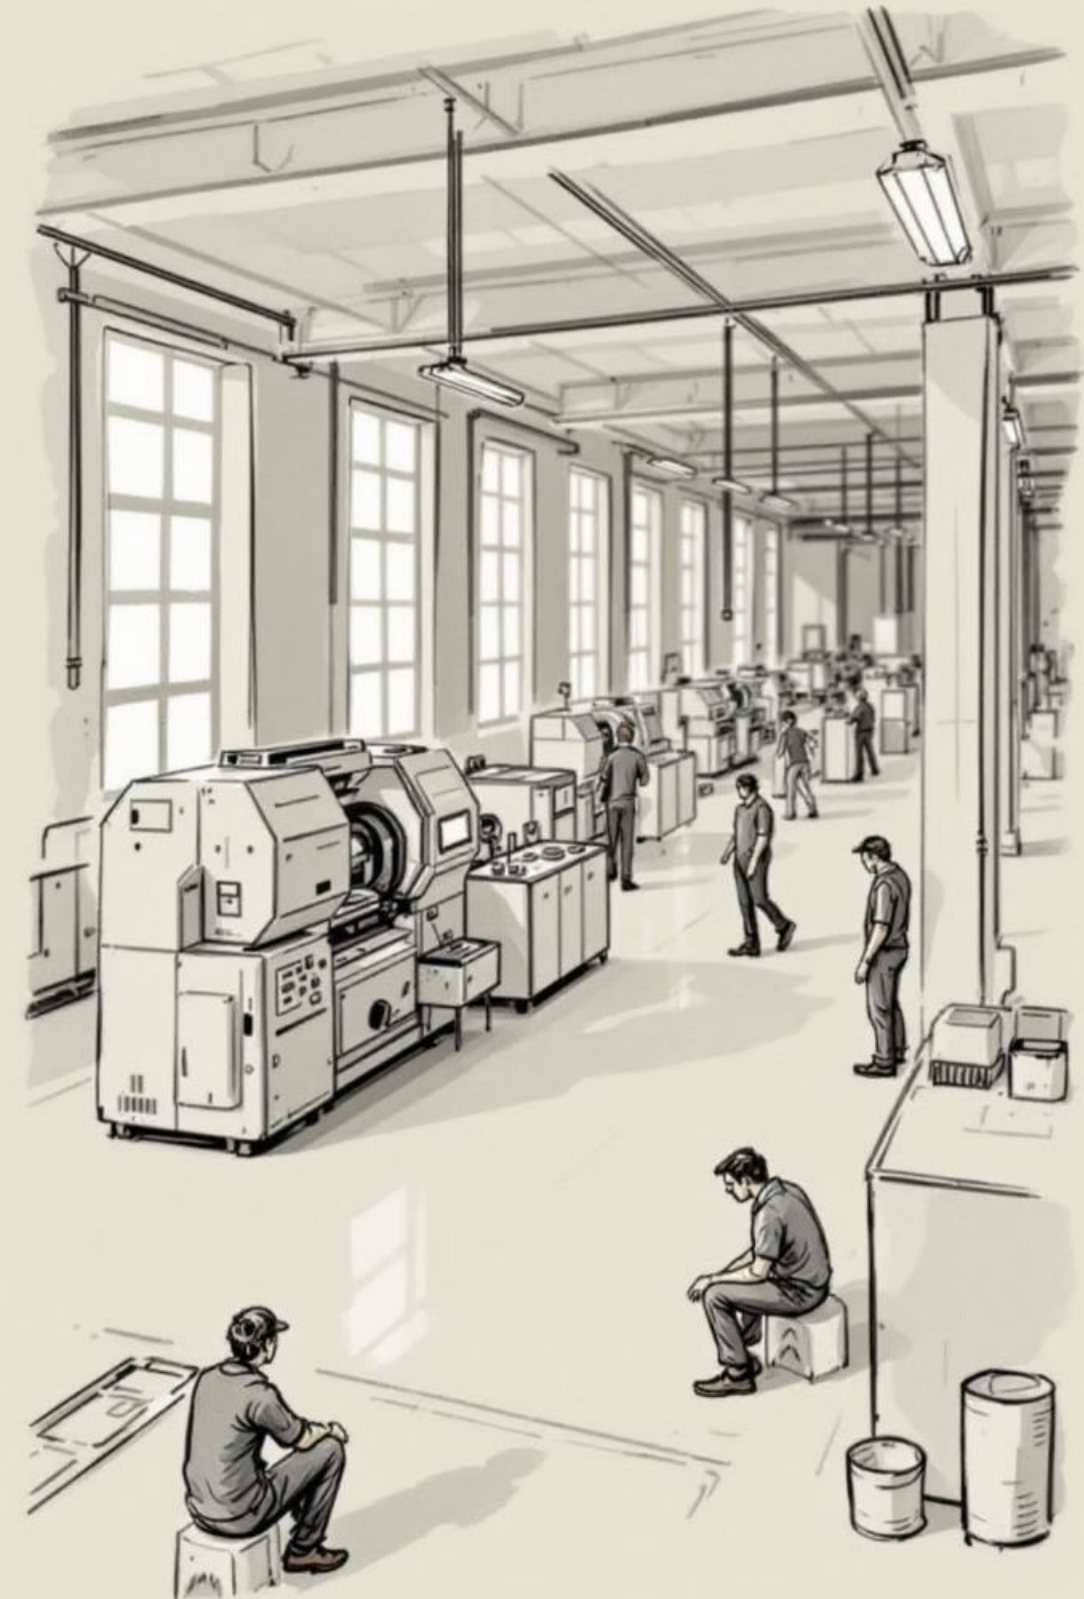

Transportation Hub

Railway connectivity enhances business and travel opportunities.

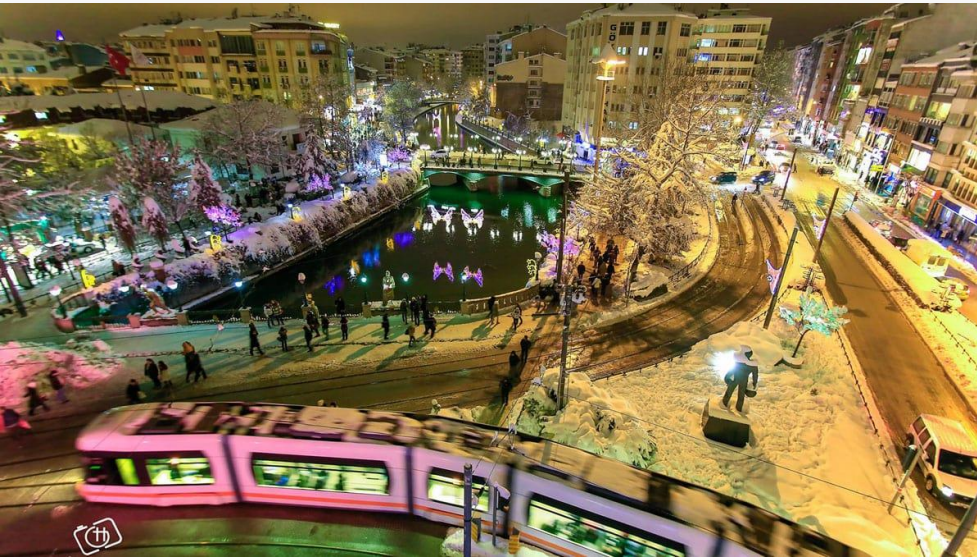

3

Technological Advancement

Presence of aerospace and railway industries fosters innovation.

A City of Progress

Urban Development

Eskişehir blends historical charm with modern progress.

Academic Excellence

The university contributes to the city's intellectual growth.

Vibrant Community

A lively city offering diverse experiences for residents and visitors.